A Late Start

If you came to the talk I gave at Clunbury earlier this year you will know that I collect bird boxes. I bought this one not because I thought it would appeal to the birds, but because its cubic shape appealed to me, as did its original clean, white, painted finish. For a decade it continued to please me whilst being ignored by the birds, but this year a pair of Redstarts decided it was just the home they were looking for. Here we see the male coming to feed the young while the female perches high up in the background waiting her turn.

Lydbury North Village Shop - Post Office Service is Back

After several months of negotiation, a Post Office service is now again available at Lydbury North Village Shop, following the loss of its Outreach service last November.

Every Wednesday a Mobile Post Office van will be positioned outside Lydbury North Shop, from 1.30pm to 3pm. The Mobile service will be able to carry out all the usual Post Office transactions. The van is equipped with disabled access ramps and lifts, and there is parking close by. Although the service will operate for a shorter period than that enjoyed previously, we hope that it will be well used, as it is the only way we shall keep it. Come along and meet Doug and Yvette, our friendly postmasters.

Oddfellows History and Sandra's Sashes

n the early 18th century the old trade guilds declined and were replaced by fraternal societies established to support workers should they fall on hard times. This included the Odd Fellows — a society representing craftsmen from an assortment of trades.

The Oddfellows Friendly Society was established in 1810 and it is still one of the largest and oldest friendly societies in the UK. It aims to improve the quality of people's lives through friendship, care and charitable support but has no political or religious affiliations. Friendship, Love & Truth, is the motto of the Oddfellows Order, or as shown in Latin on the Vale of Clun banner - Amicitia, Amor et Veritas.

Many of the early lodges met in public houses, and pubs called Oddfellows Arms are a reminder of this. Sandra Morgan remembers going as a child with her father, Jim Angell, to meetings of The Vale of Clun lodge at The Hundred House, Purslow. They met once a month and paid a subscription which could then be used to help members out in times hardship. Sandra still has her father's sash and a smaller version that she herself would wear. Sandra's sash dates from the 1950s but she thinks her father's is much older. It has a panel which shows a similar scene to that depicted on the banner and a very splendid star badge worked in gold thread and sequins. Sandra's has a gilt badge in the shape of a beehive, a motif that appears on the Oddfellows coat of arms.

Cream Tea on the Hill

Despite early clouds, the weather improved just in time to give a lovely afternoon for the Clunbury Village Hall cream tea on Clunbury Hill. Over 30 visitors enjoyed delicious cream teas and scones, took part in the raffle and bought a wide range of garden plants. Grateful thanks to all those who made scones, prepared the teas, nurtured the plants to sell and of course to all those who came along to make the event such a successful and enjoyable afternoon!

Open Gardens at Purslow Hall

Purslow Hall must have the loveliest views in South Shropshire and we are very grateful to James and Annabel Morris for kindly opening their beautiful garden on a perfect afternoon for tea and a good look round! There was a good crowd of 145 visitors and money raised was shared by Clun and Clunbury churches. Thank you too, to the many helpers and contributors who all made it such a successful afternoon. ## South West Shropshire Gardening Club

"Trade Secrets Behind The Shows" A talk by Paul Hervey-Brookes Wednesday 11 July, 7.30 pm Lydbury North Village Hall

This year we have decided to run an extra July club talk, as we have been lucky enough to get Paul Hervey-Brookes, fresh from his Gold Medal success at the Chelsea Flower Show, to share with us just what it takes, behind the scenes, to bring a great show garden to life. A rare opportunity, not to be missed!

Paul is no stranger to the show ground. As an internationally acclaimed designer and plantsman, he has won numerous medals at Royal Horticultural Society Shows, including Gold at both Chelsea and Hampton Court. Paul has been a mentor for the RHS Young Designer of the Year and is a trial member for the RHS Award of Garden Merit. He is also an RHS Gardens Judge at Chelsea, Malvern and Tatton Park. Paul is a very busy man!

This year's Nordic Spa Artisan Garden attracted a lot of attention in the press after he won a much-coveted Gold Medal. Paul described it as 'a garden inspired by living well and being connected to nature. Inspired by the Nordic Spa and the special relationship between plants, well-being and food'. We think the inside story will be even more interesting...

This talk is free to members of South West Shropshire Gardening Club; visitors are also welcome at £5 per person including refreshments. Any further queries to Sandy Burton 01588 680454 or please look at our website:

"Volunteering can be great fun," she added, "and can provide satisfaction, fulfilment and enjoyable experiences."

Furniture Please - Not Rubbish

he Furniture Scheme, a charity based and resells Ludlow. restores unwanted furniture and offers collection service, but in recent months items which should be taken to the tip have instead been dumped by their door. Staff say the problem has increased 'out of all proportion' since the civic amenity site in Coder Road, Ludlow. closed in 2014. There has been a steady increase in items being left outside, either out of hours or when the team are dealing with customers.

The charity, which was launched over 20 years ago to benefit some of the most excluded members of the community, is now getting complaints from neighbours because the yard at the back of the warehouse on Weeping Cross Lane is unsightly, as staff and volunteers struggle to keep it clear and tidy under the pressure of this increased demand.

As a result, the charity is suspending all collections - other than those already booked in - through July to deal with this problem. When they restart the free collection service, they will only collect items that can be reused or repaired.

Anyone who would like more information or to help the charity find ways of dealing with the problem, should call 01584 874922, or Email:

info@furniturescheme.co.uk or visit: http://www.furniturescheme.co.uk.

NHS 111 number switch information and resources

From 17 July, the telephone number for urgent out-of-hours medical help or advice will be 111.

It's free to call, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year

The NHS 111 service will replace the current out-of-hours telephone access service provided by Shropdoc in line with national policy to provide a consistent, integrated approach to urgent care; but any patients that need to see a clinician out-of-hours will still be seen by a local GP or other appropriate clinician.

Clunbury Parents and Toddler Group would like to place on record its thanks to Aston on Clun Community shop for their generosity in funding a grant of £227.86 to purchase racking and storage boxes for equipment at Clunbury Village hall.

Local Services in Danger?

The Mobile Library, which visits Clunbury fortnightly on Tuesday mornings currently has no users. Similarly the Post Office at Clunbury Village Hall has few users. It could be a case of 'use it or lose it' with these services.
